The county of castles, breath-taking views, and big skies, Northumberland is ideal to be explored on foot. This 5-night walking holiday will take in 4 completely different areas of England most northerly county including walking along the stunning coastline, exploring the National Park for some amazing 360° views, walking in the Cheviot Hills and lastly a fascinating guided tour of Holy Island with local expert including following the ancient pilgrimage trail, barefoot across the bay.

The group size will be 12, keeping the group manageable especially with the unlikely possibility of some Covid-19 regulations being in place.

Every evening a group reservation will be booked at a different pub/restaurant within a 10-mile radius of Alnwick, our base for the week. Transport every evening will be available for those wishing to go out on the group reservation. Eating out with the group is purely optional and Alnwick is a tourist destination with lots of dining opportunities.

Walking

All walks on this departure will range between 6-13 miles per day involving up to 7 hr days.

Walking is optional, and you are most welcome to do your own thing on any day of the itinerary, it's your holiday.

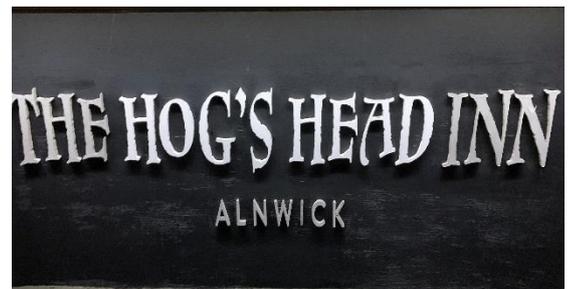

All routes will be on designated and established pathways, with occasional steeper uphill sections and rougher sections underfoot. Walking boots or shoes will be fine for all walks.

The walk across the bay to Holy Island will involve a 2.5 mile walk across firm sand and the route is best achieved barefooted before putting on walking shoes/boots/trainers for the walk around Holy Island.

Accommodation

The Hog's Head Inn is situated on the outskirts of Alnwick and is perfectly situated transport routes for our mini-bus transfers. The rooms are large, clean, with friendly staff and the hotel is 5 years old.

The Hog's Head Inn, Alnwick | The Inn Collection Group

Breakfast daily is a buffet style with cereals, porridge, fruit etc and a full hot food selection, so perfect for a good breakfast before a day's walking. The hotel offers a dining menu throughout the day and evening if required.

Itinerary

Day 1

Pick up from your Home (or meet at Sea Terminal) by 16-Seater mini-bus.

Depart IOM Sea Terminal at 0845 - Arrive Heysham at 12:30

Transfer to Hamshaugh a pretty village which is about 2 hrs from the ferry, with a table booked for a late lunch. The Crown Inn, Humshaugh. The village and surrounding area are right in the heart of Hadrian's Wall ruins and after lunch a little walk for about an hr or so to view a few remaining parts of the wall and stretch our legs.

Transfer approx. 1hr to Alnwick and check into our accommodation.

Rest of the day free to relax after the journey.

The hotel will have food available to order till 10pm if you require a light supper.

Day 2

Breakfast served from 0730 hrs

Leave hotel at 0915 hrs - stopping off in Alnwick to get a packed lunch. Alnwick has a variety of supermarkets including Sainsburys and an M&S Foodhall. We will stop off on route every day to get some things for a packed lunch.

Today's walk is our longest and a linear route, starting from Craster. Our walk is along the well-trodden Northumberland Coastal footpath, with good terrain and easy walking. Walking trainers or boots will be suitable for today. Following the edge of the North Sea via Dunstanburgh Castle and, alongside some beautiful beaches, over some spectacular dunes, it's an area of outstanding natural beauty. Past the small fishing hamlet of Low Newton by the Sea, now a National Trust site including the surrounding bay. Our walk continues along this beautiful coastline passed the village of Beadnall and onto Seahouses the bustling seaside town with its busy harbour taking tourists out to the Farne Islands on wildlife trips. Our walk takes us onwards along the coast to finish at the green that sits below the impressive Bambrough Castle.

Walking Distance total – 13.5 miles /
Ascent total 67m – Easy and enjoyable walking on flat terrain.

On completion of the walk, we will catch the local bus service (not included about £5 pp) back to Craster to pick up our minibus and transfer back to our Hotel in Alnwick.

Transfer from the hotel to evening meal reservation at the Tankerville Arms pub at Eglington – About a 15-minute drive from the Hotel. The Tankerville Arms for those who wish to come at an additional cost.

Day 3

Breakfast served from 0730 hrs

Leave hotel at 0930 stopping off on-route for packed lunch.

Pretty 30-minute drive to south of Rothbury and into the Northumberland National Park for a fantastic circular route out into open moorland and along the Simonside ridge. From leaving the minibus we can leave our bags on the minibus and have a short climb to Lordenshaw Iron Age Fort remains with some good examples of ancient Cup and Ring carvings on route. Our onward route takes us back past the minibus and along the popular Simonside ridge walk past the summits of the Beacon, Dove Crag to the Summit of Simonside with brilliant 360-degree views of Northumberland including the Cheviots and the Northeast coastline. Descending sharply for a short distance down some steps (cut onto the hillside) our route takes us gently onwards toward Tusson Hill, the highest point in the Simon Side Hills and a panoramic view of the Coquetdale Valley before retracing our steps for a short while before turning off on a different path we walk underneath the ridge, and alongside the edge of the forest before re-joining the pathway back to the Minibus .

No facilities on route and walking boots would be ideal for today's walk and walking poles if you use them.

Distance – 8 miles in total and 332m of ascent.

A manageable walk with a couple of steeper uphill sections but with established pathways throughout. A fantastic day walk with far reaching views throughout the walk.

On completion of the walk, we will stop off at the pretty town of Rothbury for some free time before transferring back to the hotel in Alnwick.

Evening meal reservation for those who wish to join the group at an additional cost.

Day 4

Breakfast served from 0730hrs

Optional Sightseeing Day

Why not visit the local attractions of Alnwick at your leisure including the world-famous Alnwick Castle Click here for details of Alnwick Castle

Or the stunning Alnwick Castle Gardens Click here for details of Alnwick Castle Gardens

Or wandered around this beautiful medieval town with its museums, galleries, and delightful tea shops.

Walk Option

Leaving the Hotel at 1000 hrs stopping off on-route for a packed lunch.

We head North towards the edge of the National Park and the Cheviot Hills, the beautiful, rounded hills that mark the border between England and Scotland and the market town of Wooler to start our circular route.

Leaving the pretty market town of Wooler and its many tiny shops and cafes, we walk out towards the open countryside of the Cheviot Hills, on a mixture of quiet farm tracks and through grassy fields our route brings us to the base of Humbleton Hill. We slowly climb, circumnavigating the hill for some magnificent views of the Cheviot hills, geological landscape and upward to Gain Law the highest point of our walk today. The route then cleverly walks along the top of the rolling landscape before dropping slowly through this beautiful and interesting landscape before we start to view the town of Wooler and our finish point.

Walking Distance – 9.5 miles / Ascent total 279m

The majority of today's walk is out in the Cheviot Hills and on grass paths with fantastic views.

Transfer back to the Hotel

Evening meal reservation within 15 mins drive from the hotel at an additional cost.

Day 5

Pilgrim's Way to the Holy Island of Lindisfarne

Breakfast served from 0730hrs

Leave the hotel at 0830 stopping off on-route for a packed lunch – The drive is approx. 30/40 mins, and we need to be ready for a 0930 am start.

Today's walk is the highlight of the trip walking the Pilgrim's Way to the Holy Island of Lindisfarne and a historical tour of the island.

The walk today has the services of an award-winning local guide to really make the experience memorable for everyone.

The walk today starts with the ancient route to Holy Island walking barefoot across the bay on the unique traditional route following the marker poles across the sandy bay (A must for everyone visiting). We pass a colony of singing seals and in the footsteps of Irish-Celtic monks, Anglo-Saxon Kings and Vikings before us. The walk across the bay is about 3 miles, once on the Island with our boots on, we will have a short walk to stop for coffee and cake(chocolate scone cake is a must!) in one of the artisan coffee shops. Our guide will take us around this stunning and unique isle with its medieval priory, the Tudor castle, lime kilns, wildlife areas and rich religious history

Distance 5/6 miles in total and 24m of ascent

Walking trainers or boots will be fine for today's walk. The tide safe crossing times that day are 0915 – 1545, So we will be catching the bus back to cross the causeway in the afternoon (about £2.50), giving us more time to explore the island. After reaching our minibus we transfer back to the hotel.

A table will be booked for the whole group at the Hogs Head Hotel in Alnwick to raise a glass to a great week's walking, again at an additional cost.

Day 6

Breakfast served from 0730 hrs

Leave the hotel 0915hrs to transfer to Heysham Port to catch the 1415 hrs sailing arriving in Douglas at 1800 hrs.

Island wide drops offs (unless other arrangements wish to be made).
