MANX FOOTPATHS
Conservation GROUP

Affiliated to The Ramblers

CODE OF CONDUCT

LISTEN: It is important to follow the Walk Leader's instructions. Do not deviate from the walk without his/her permission. This is for your safety and the safety of your fellow walkers. Walkers must please remain with the main party between the Walk Leader and Back Marker unless the Leader or Back Marker has agreed otherwise.

COUNTRYSIDE CODE: All persons taking part in club activities must adhere to the Countryside Code, such as not picking any flora and fauna, and taking your litter home. Leave only your footprints, take away only your memories.

GATES: Please leave gates as you find them.

BATHROOM BREAKS: Please be discreet and find a suitable place for your comfort break away from other walkers.

SMOKING: Please respect other walkers by not smoking or vaping in their company.

RESPECT FOR OTHERS: Respect the Walk Leader and all other walkers. Help fellow walkers who may be finding things less easy than you do. Support, respect and try to understand the needs of your fellow walkers.

AND FINALLY... MOST IMPORTANT OF ALL...

HAVE FUN AND ENJOY: Walking is all about the friendships, fresh air, and places that only a handful of people will ever see. Take the time to have fun with your fellow walkers, stop and smell the flowers, rest at the highest point, and make as many wonderful memories as you can.